

Last NBBLO News

Update: 2/23/2009

National News

Below are links to recent nationwide articles pertaining to: Business Licensing, Code Enforcement and Administrative operating procedures. We thank you and your organization for your continued support of the NBBLO!

Important Links:

- Become a member or renew your membership.
- Register for the 2009 Conference in Atlanta.

Administration:

- 2/21/2009-Birmingham leaders say spending ahead of income, but budget should be closer to balanced soon
- 2/22/2009-Housing Bust Spurs Rental Fears
- 2/20/2009-Dog ordinance: Proposed Fraser ordinance addresses at-large dogs, poop, other issues
- 2/22/2009-Rule for Proving Legal Residency Is Loosened
- 2/22/2009-3 a.m. closing proposal draws mixed reaction from bar owners
- 2/22/2009-Future looking bright for Horry County
- 2/20/2009-REU review committee probes abatement policy
- 2/20/2009-Surveillance cameras going up at illegal dump sites
- 2/21/2009-Pinellas code enforcers try to end an escalating sign battle
- 2/20/2009-Code complaints top city manager's weekly report
- 2/20/2009-Camden commission considers banning billboards
- 2/20/2009-Q&A on California tax increases
- 2/20/2009-Latest chess move in strip club case
- 2/20/2009-California Budget: Big Business is Only Winner

Business Licensing:

- 2/21/2009-Mayor wants to streamline business licenses from 77 to 3
- 2/20/2009-Governor's plan would allow cities and towns to hand out more liquor licenses
- 2/19/2009-Mounds View proposes moral test for massage parlor licenses
- 2/19/2009-Officials conduct large inspection on North Austin hotel

Code Enforcement:

- 2/19/2009-Camden cracks down on chickens
- 2/20/2009-County To Provide Code Enforcement In Century
- Six Points merchants win fight over sidewalk signs
- Hundreds of t.v.'s donated for recycling
- 2/21/2009-Rialto's shopping cart ordinance paying off
- 2/21/2009-Natrona group seeks more code enforcement efforts
- 2/21/2009-West Ward residents criticize Easton's code enforcement, drug crimes
- 2/19/2009-No Silence In The City

Revenue Enhancement

- 2/20/2009-Parks to Lay Off Workers, Raise Fees
- 2/21/2009-Burlingame business owner eyes reviving Downtown Business Improvement District
- 2/18/2009-Online travel sites ordered to pay \$21 million to Anaheim

Miscellaneous

- 2/29/2009-Knowledge to be city's weapon in addressing coyote issues
- 2/21/2009-Avoid Deadbeat Clients with BusinessBeware.biz
- 2/20/2009-No need for small businesses to go it alone in tough times
- 2/21/2009-Probationers, Keep Palestine Beautiful, city work together to cover up graffiti
- Residents desire more residential occupancy inspections
- Government issues new warning about phishing scams
- 2/20/2009-Lawyer's loophole beats traffic cameras

The National Bureau of Business Licensing Officials, NBBLO, is the only national organization which serves to facilitate training, informational resources and networking opportunities for our profession. Thanks for participating in the NBBLO, the greatest value for business licensing, code enforcement and administrative professionals.